Kergan Recommends Bond Issue, Whitaker Private Subscription, For River Mouth Acquisition

Following election of officers for Carmel Unincorporated Monday at 4 p. m. at All Saints' Church, members of the fact finding committee on acquisition of Carmel River mouth and San Jose Beach will make reports and recommendations.

Francis Whitaker, chairman of the committee, told the Pine Cone last week that from the information he had gathered regarding estimated land values, County money is available for the purchase of the Monterey Beach, Project No. 1, A. However, there will not be any county money available at the present time for the purchase of Carmel River Mouth, Project No. 1 B., he said and added that he would recommend that the money for the purchase of the River Mouth and the beach to San Jose Creek be raised by private subscription.

Wesley Kergan, a member of the committee, says that he favors a county-wide bond issue to raise matching money for the completion of the entire County Beaches and Parks plan, which includes several parks in the interior of the county.

"Land prices aren't getting any lower while we wait," he said.

Decision Today On Peninsula Com. Center

The Monterey Peninsula will have a community center, including an auditorium seating 600, if the USO Council, meeting this afternoon in Monterey, can work out a plan for raising $15,000 to contribute toward the yearly maintenance cost.

Through the efforts of Ed Cochran, council chairman, El Estero USO property has been transferred from the Federal Works Agency to the U. S. Army. When the USO becomes inactive on December 26, the Army is willing to rent the property to the community for $1.00 per year, to be used as a community center. The Army and Navy Y.M.C.A. will provide the staff and contribute $5,000 toward the $20,000 needed for operating expenses.

Cochrane believes that a large part of the remaining $15,000 which would have to be raised by the community would be forthcoming through rental of the auditorium to organizations and conventions.

Service men would have first call for use of the facilities of the center, youth of the Peninsula would have second priority, and then the Peninsula at large.

The auditorium alone will be of inestimable value to the community, Cochran believes, since the need is great and the likelihood of the Peninsula's building an auditorium within the next few years is slight.

GALLERY BUSY

"People are travelling again," Nellie Montague, Curator of the Carmel Art Association Gallery observed Tuesday, casting an appraising eye over the guest register at the gallery. On one page were the names of visitors from seven states and six points outside the United States. "Register looks like it used to when I was curator here ten years ago," Mrs. Montague added.

Carmel Artists Carry Off Prizes At State Fair

Two Carmel artists carried off first honors in the popularity vote at the California State Fair at Sacramento, Nellie Montague, Curator of the Carmel Art Association Gallery, heard yesterday.

Paul Whitman won popularity prize for prints; Laura Maxwell for water colors. Popularity prizes are awarded on the votes of the visitors to the exhibition.

Colliard Hearing, No Longer Needed, Set By State Board

Notice was received yesterday afternoon by City Clerk Peter Mawdsley that the State Board of Equalization had set November 17, 2 p. m. for the hearing on the Fernand H. Colliard on sale beer and wine license.

City Attorney William Hudson, who asked for the hearing after the license had been granted on the grounds that the board had issued it prematurely, states that he doubts that the hearing will take place. The Colliards are traveling in Europe. Their restaurant is now being used by the Carmel Book Sellers, and Attorney Hudson says he will request that the license be revoked because of non-use. According to the statute, a license lapses after 30 days of non-use.

Live Butterflies Will Not Be Used In P. G. Pageant

In response to a petition presented to the Pacific Grove City Council Wednesday evening, requesting that live monarch butterflies not be used in the Butterfly Pageant, Reginald Foster, city attorney and author and director of the pageant, pledged that the city ordinance protecting the butterflies would be respected. He and his assistants arranged to present the annual pageant without the use of live butterflies for the big scene. The entire staff set to work to manufacture artificial butterflies that could be released from the baskets at the moment of climax.

The pageant, scheduled to be enacted November 6, 7 and 8, has a special matinee tomorrow afternoon. All performances will take place in the Pacific Grove Municipal Ball Park.

Warenskjold Sings On Standard Hour At 8:30 Sunday Night

Dorothy Warenskjold, who takes the lead in the next Playhouse production, Mrs. Moonlight, which opens November 17, is to sing on the Standard Hour over KPO Sunday night at 8:30.

She has chosen the aria from Louise, Depuis Le jour; Mi Tradi from Don Giovanni and, with Charles Harmon, the duet from Pagliacci.

Miss Warenskjold, who is preparing for a career on the concert stage and in opera, has accepted the lead in Mrs. Moonlight because it gives her opportunity for additional stage training, also, there is occasion for her to sing several times during the course of the play.

Row Seen Here In Guest House Owners' Arrest

A community fight of monumental proportions is brewing this week end over the "paying guests" vs. "let us protect our residential area from commercial establishments" contingents.

First to take a beating will be the paying guest house (rooming house in any other community) proprietors who have violated the zoning law to the extent of 4, 5, 6—in some cases as many as 8

Citizens Petition Council For 4th St. Cut-Through

A petition signed by 60 people was presented to the City Council Wednesday night requesting that Fourth Street be opened between Lincoln and Dolores Streets, so that access could be had to certain houses in the area and that a drain be put in the badly eroded gully.

Street Superintendent William Askew reported that the work could be done for a cost to the property owners of $1800, they paying for the materials, the city furnishing equipment and labor. The council instructed City Clerk Peter Mawdsley to send out letters to the property owners of the area acquainting them with the terms under which the work would be done. It would be incumbent upon the property owners to take the initiative and collect the funds.

City Employees' salaries were raised $25 per month for those on full time; $10 and $15 per month for the part time workers.

City Clerk Peter Mawdsley was instructed to address a letter to the California Water and Telephone Company demanding that the water pressure be raised in the residential district mains. Donald Craig, fire commissioner, reported that not only was the pressure lower than safety standards set by the board of fire underwriters, but that there were not enough fire hydrants, and six, instead of four inch pipes are required. He added that he had talked to the Water Company officials and they had pointed out the impossibility of getting pipe at this time, "But I believe public utilities move first where the pressure is greatest," Craig said and added, "I suggest we light a fire under the water company."

Craig supported Building Inspector Floyd Adams in his plea that Fire Zone 2 be extended to Fire Zone 2A. Councilman Keith Evans opposed action at that time on the grounds that the building code was to be revised in the near future and the matter of fire zone changes could be reviewed at the same time. The council decided to discuss the matter with the Board of Fire Control and a representative from the board of fire underwriters at an informal session following the adjourned meeting on November 25.

On the motion of Councilman Evans, the council revoked permissions formerly granted for re"paying guests" in houses in the residential area where the legal limit of roomers is 3 per house.

City Attorney William Hudson is drawing up complaints this week end to file against the offenders early next week.

Meanwhile, the "paying guest house" proprietors are preparing to launch an attack on the zoning laws. They maintain that the county ordinance allows eight paying guests and they are going to storm the council to revise the ordinance to permit eight paying guests in the residential area in Carmel.

"Eight! That's a rooming house—damn it," one city official observed.

"And some of the offenders have set up shop in parts of town where property values are the highest. Maybe it's going to be a hardship on some of these rooming house proprietors who have bought big houses in the best residential district at big prices for the express purpose of establishing rooming houses, to have to cut down their paying guests to three, but what about the property owners around them? They bought their property in a zoned residential district. If rooming houses spring up around them, what happens to the value of their residential property?"

Mental Hygiene Lecture Here Nov. 17 Open To Public

Dr. Pierce Barrette, practising neurologist from San Jose, will be presented in a lecture at 8:00 on Monday evening, November 17, at Sunset Auditorium, according to Eldon J. Covell, President of the Monterey Chapter of the Mental Hygiene Society. The lecture, first in a series of three on the general subject, "Approaching human affairs through reason or emotion", will be concerned with the clarification of average human attitudes towards world affairs. These attitudes, running the gamut from cold intellectuality to overwrought anxiety, have much to do with personal, national, and world happiness.

On Friday evening, November 14, study of the subject will be continued with an informal discussion group which will meet in Room 11 at Sunset School at 8 o'clock. It is hoped that spirited audience participation will result in the formation of a rudimentary guide to a valid approach to the consideration of world events, with both emotion and reason playing intelligent parts.

Succeeding lectures in this series are scheduled for November 18 at Pacific Grove High School, and December 1 at Walter Colton School, Monterey.

Dr. Barrette's lecture is presented by the Mental Hygiene Society in cooperation with the Carmel Adult School, and is open to the public without admission charge.

Realtors Agree To Take Down For Sale Signs

Representatives of all the Carmel real estate firms, 22 in number, signed an agreement this week not to put up For Sale or For Rent signs on property on their lists. The agreement is effective not only within the incorporated limits of the town but in the outlying tracts as well.

The agreement reads:

"We, the undersigned real estate brokers, maintaining offices in Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, pledge ourselves to refrain from placing any for sale or for rent signs on any properties inside the City Limits or any of the subdivisions surrounding the subdivision of Carmel-by-the-Sea. This agreement is to be effective November 1, 1947.

"It is our belief that real estate signs of any kind will detract from the natural beauty of our area and will tend to affect values, and as real estate brokers, we should put forth every effort to protect our area from deleterious factors. We should urge all owners to abide by this agreement.

"This agreement will be presented to the membership of the Monterey Peninsula Realty Board at their next regular meeting, asking them to pass a resolution supporting this agreement and to request all members of the Board to abide by our wishes."

The action on the part of the real estate brokers is a reaffirmation of the gentlemen's agreement that was entered into many years ago when Carmel's real estate firms numbered only five.

Ed Leslie says he doesn't know of any other town where such an agreement is in effect, but after all, he adds, there aren't very many towns that have as much beauty to be protected as Carmel.

It's Official Now, Kippy Stuart Is Garden Expert

Mrs. George W. Stuart, the Kippy who writes adventurous stories about life in the Philippines, is now a full fledged Garden Consultant with a state license and equipment, complete with slacks. Last week she took over a contract to re-design the gardens in the Pine Inn patio. She had already been supplying more than 200 bouquets a week to local restaurants and assisting in the decorative work of one of the nurseries.

Kippy has been studying intensively for several years until she is now in the way of being an expert on seasonal duties to keep a garden beautiful the year round.

Next week her column of advice to gardeners, Now is the Time, will appear for the first time in The Pine Cone.

● Sporting ● NOTES

PENINSULA FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

TONIGHT—Carmel lightweights at Gilroy, 6:30 p.m.; Carmel varsity at Gilroy, 8 p.m.; Pacific Grove at Gonzales, 8 p.m.; Monterey at Santa Cruz, 6:30 p.m.

TUESDAY, November 11—Carmel at Pacific Grove, 2 p.m.

THURSDAY, November 13, —Carmel lightweights vs. Boulder Creek, here, 4 p.m.

BUSY WEEK AHEAD FOR CARMEL GRIDDERS

Tonight at 6:30 the Carmel High School lightweight football team will engage the Gilroy limited squad in the first game of a grueling week of football. Immediately following the lightweight tilt the varsity teams from Gilroy and Carmel will tangle in a game which should be pretty evenly contested. Campbell High School beat both schools by identical scores so the contest may aptly be called a toss-up.

November 11th, Armistice Day, the big game of the year on the Peninsula will be played when Pacific Grove and Carmel battle it out on the PG turf. This game was previously scheduled for October 10th, but the elements overcame the football enthusiasm and it was rained out. Regardless of past performances of either team, the outcome of this game is never predictable. Both schools save their best shots for this annual meeting and anything can happen. On comparative scores Carmel has a slight advantage, but the Breakers, due to injuries to key players, have not been at full strength this season. All the PG stars are on the mend now and should be in top shape for the Padres.

On Thursday, November 13th, the Padre lightweights go into action again when they take on the Boulder Creek varsity. Boulder Creek has been inactive in the CCAL during the war years and is just returning to competition. This is their first year of football and, for the most part, they are playing only lightweight teams.

Gonzales comes to Bardarson Field on Friday, November 14th, for the final varsity game of the 1947 season. Gonzales has been a hot and cold ball team this season, but have the material to beat any school in the league. They lost to King City, but turned around and shellacked the Salinas Junior-Varsity, 25-0. This game was originally scheduled for Saturday, but was moved up one day when Gonzales was given permission for Friday travel.

CARMEL LIGHTWEIGHTS DEFEAT K. C. BABES, 14 TO 0

In a preliminary game to last Saturday's varsity fracas at King City, the scrappy Padre Babes ran roughshod over the Mustang reserves. The hard-running lightweight backs had a field day rambling through the King City line, and the passing of Jim Hare and Steve Whitaker gave the Mustang defenders a bad afternoon. The Padres hit pay dirt early in the second quarter when Walt Frey intercepted a KC pass and ran it back to the enemy 11 yard line. Three line thrusts carried to the 4 where Keith McKenzie knifed through for the 6. Pete Berg caught the conversion pass to make it 7 to 0. The local Babes scored again in the third quarter when Jim Hare hit Walt Frey with a well-directed pass which caught the King City secondary flat-footed. The conversion was good and the red and grey led, 14 to 0.

King City put on one sustained march which was broken up on the Carmel 14 yard line, otherwise the locals had complete game control. Fine line play by Pierre Boutet, Jim Harget, and Frank Timmins bottled up the KC running attack.

Playing for the Padre Babes were: Pete Berg, Bernie Adams (Captain), Pierre Boutet, Jim Harget, Howard DeAmaral, Jack Galloway, Frank Timmins, Ernie Barker, Frank Richey, Lee Lauge-nour, Ted Lafleur, Harry Watson, Jim Hare, Steve Whitaker, Walt Frey, Legare McNeill, Jim Moran, Al Green, Keith McKenzie, and Bill Daniels.

The fighting eleven of Junipero Serra School, captained by Henry Overin, have provided keen competition to their opponents from the neighboring towns. Of three games scheduled they have won from Salinas Sacred Heart Catholic School by a 6-0 score, and played them to a 0-0 tie. Watsonville St. Frances School bested them by a 12 to 0 score. The Mission School has a slight edge over the Carmel Eighth Graders, winning two out of three, and tying one game 0-0. Their next scheduled game will be with the Carmel Valley School on Sunday. Fred Bechdolt, although not acting in the official capacity of coach, has been of invaluable help to the team, scheduling their games, obtaining uniforms, and in general molding the boys into a winning team.

Symphony Sets Dec. 8 For First Local Concert

Plans for the December 3 concert of the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra were the principal topic of discussion at a meeting of the directors of the Symphony Association held at the Carmel High School on last Monday evening. The concert will be given at Sunset Auditorium in the evening, and will present an interesting program of orchestral works, played by the orchestra of 60 pieces under the joint conductorship of Clifford Anderson and Lorell McCann.

Mrs. Muriel Simpson, fund drive chairman, is anxious to complete the fund drive by November 15, in order that all names of contributors to the Association may be placed on the program of the concert. In addition to the three regular concerts by the orchestra being planned for the current season, a performance at Fort Ord is scheduled for early December.

Complimentary tickets for the concert will be made available to orchestra members for their friends and relatives. The report of the treasurer showed a satisfying profit from the concert of the Paganini Quartet presented for the benefit of the Association. The current fund drive has netted more than $2,000 in memberships.

Regular members of the orchestra are drawn from points as remote as Soledad and Santa Cruz. One member of the group recently hitch-hiked all the way from Aptos in order to attend a rehearsal. Transportation for members of the orchestra is being paid for by the Association. The selections being rehearsed by the orchestra now represent a considerable advance sidents to fence in gardens that extended across the sidewalk area, and denied the application of R. F. D. LeMon and Miss Eleanor H. Henry for permission to fence gardens in a similar manner.

The fences force pedestrians to walk in the street, Evans pointed out, cut down the space for parking, lead to misunderstandings regarding true boundary lines when property is sold, and jeopardize city owned trees that may be growing within the fenced area, assumed to be privately owned, and destroyed.

A letter from the Utilities Commission was read asking the council's view on the application of the Bay Rapid Transit Co. to discontinue the Pacific Grove-Carmel service. City Clerk Mawdsley reported that he had received letters from two residents in the Carmel Woods area protesting the discontinuance of the service in view of the fact that they could not conveniently use the Monterey-Carmel bus. Council suggested that Mawdsley ask the company for figures on the number of passengers using the bus.

A letter was read from Nellie Montague, Art Gallery Curator, requesting that some memorial to Frank Devendorf, one of the town's founders, be put in Devendorf Plaza. Laura Maxwell said that Devendorf's daughter, Edwina, had offered to give the city a bust of her father. The council accepted the gift and referred the matter to the Planning Commission as to where the bust was to be placed.

Lydia Davis

Lydia Davis, 82, a resident of Carmel for many years, died early Wednesday morning in a rest home in Monterey after two months' illness. She was a native of Torquay, South Devon, England, and is survived by a sister, Mrs. Alice Stillwell, who resides in England.

She was an ardent Red Cross worker during World War I and during the recent conflict was continually on outpost duty on the Peninsula. Until a few weeks ago she was active in supplying transportation for groups engaged in community work. Arrangements are being made by the Paul Mortuary.

Thomas L. Petty

Thomas L. Petty died Tuesday afternoon after an illness of several weeks. He had been a resident of Carmel since 1929. He is survived by his wife, Lillian Petty, and their two sons and eight daughters, as well as by a sister and a brother. His sons are George Petty of Carmel and Albert Petty of San Francisco. His daughters are Helen Petty, Shirley Petty, Carol Petty, Aileen Petty, and Nancy Hagar all of Carmel, Mrs. Hal Sims of Huntington Park, Mrs. Ernest Hartmann of Santa Monica, and Louise Petty of Los Angeles.

Outstanding Color Films To Be Shown At Sunset Wednesday

Dr. Arthur Pillsbury's outstanding color film, Mysteries of Plant Life, will be shown to the public at Sunset Auditorium Wednesday evening, November 12, at 8 p. m. under the direction of Enid Larsen, who conducts the adult school class in microbiology.

These photographs of living cells were taken through a microscope with polarized light, and they show the movement of protoplasm within the cell wall. They also show the opening and closing of the iris, hibiscus and rose. The film is non-technical and will appeal to garden lovers as well as to biologists.

The second half of the program will include a color film on Seashore Animals taken along the Monterey and Carmel shores. Here will be shown a sea jelly pulsating as it moves slowly through the water, a hermit crab as it finds its home, and other undersea oddities.

Both films are in the possession of the Carmel Adult School through the courtesy of the Educational Service of the Standard Oil Company of California.

One Has To Go Window Shopping To See Some Of This Month's Art Association Gallery Exhibition

BY NANCY LOFTON

This is a good week for window shopping. The painters of the Carmel Art Association have been at great pains to bring American Art Week to the attention of the man who walks down the street, and consequently the store windows of Monterey, Pacific Grove and Carmel are showing outstanding pictures by such painters as Barbara Stevenson and Elwood Graham, John O'Shea and Gene Francis and other members of the Art Association. The new shows at the Art Association Gallery on Dolores suffer somewhat as a result but there are still several paintings in each of the new shows that look alive.

In both the oil and the water-color show there is a surfeit of scenery most literally rendered, but one might as well get used to that, and occasionally these endless waves and rocks and trees have been seen and painted with more than ordinary fervor and a stirring picture comes to birth.

In the water color show Leon Amyx, Tom Valiant and Joe Moody each have pictures which seem to me well seen, felt and executed. There is little if any similarity in their work, but each of the three is painting with skill and conviction. Gene Francis works with blue in her watercolor and makes a warming design of form and color, and Catherine Seidenbeck plays with textures in her painting of undersea life which has more the quality of low relief than of painting. Leslie Emery uses an almost microscopic attention to detail in his architectural drawing, and Sam Colburn and Burton Boundey both pay joyous homage to rising hills. M. DeNeale Morgan's cypresses, Pauline Pier-son's flowers, Henrietta Shore's resting door and work by Elizabeth S. Jones, W. C. Watts, Sophie Harpe, Free Dean, Celia B. Seymour, Kay Rodgers and Marjorie Pegram complete the water color show.

The oil show is overweighted with landscapes and still life painting, but some of the landscapes are as stirring and vivid as the Pfeiffer Beach picture of Richard Lofton or the liquid blue and green ocean of Armin Hansen, and some of the still life pictures have as much individuality as the one of Leslie Buck with its dryness, restraint and bloodlessness which give her work definite and pleasing character. There are in the show some good, if not new, examples of the work of Henrietta Shore, Marjorie Doolittle and Florence True, and characteristic examples of Frank Moore's, Ferdinand Burgdorff's and W. C. Watts' painting. Buck Warshawsky is represented by an early and gentle canvas which has charm and delicacy. Leslie Emery shows a farm scene painted with a sort of wistful delineation of detail. Two large and well painted flower studies dominate the gallery from their vantage points on the new mobile walls. Nell Walker Warner's Matilija Poppies is warm and bright, and Jeanette Lewis has given her handsome hydrangeas a carnivorous air. She has conveyed well their heavy, almost overpowering character.

Other members of the association whose work completes this show, which will hang only through November, are Margaret Levick, I. Maynard Curtis, M. DeNeale Morgan, Marjorie Pegram, Mildred Boak, Paul Whitman, W. C. Watts, Howard Smith, Thomas McGlynn, E. M. Heath, Ferdinand Burgdorff, Emil White, William Chase Merritt, K. Aflund, Edna V. Richard, Frank Moore, Celia B. Seymour, Ralph Murray, Tom Valiant, W. K. Fisher, John O'Shea, Burton Boundey, Frank Myers, George Koch, Lee Randolph, and Sophie Harpe.

Sport Notes

Padre varsity football team ground out a well-earned 7 to 0 victory last Saturday afternoon on the King City turf. The victory was especially pleasing to the followers of the red and grey, as it is the first time that Carmel has taken the measure of a King City football team. With this win the Padres move into the top spot in the B division race and the loss relegates King City to second place.

From the opening kickoff, which King City ran back to their 40 yard stripe, it was apparent that the locals were going to give the heavily favored Mustangs an interesting afternoon. On their first series of plays the blue and white boys ended up with a loss of 14 yards and were forced to kick to the alert Padres. The locals racked up two first downs and were forced to punt. King City took over on their 11 yard line and were again held by the strong Padre line play. The red and white returned the Mustang punt to their 40 yard line where the climax play of the game took place. Paul Warner sent Dick Garguilo behind the Mustang secondary and directed a pass in his direction which was short and apparently to be intercepted by King City. However, the ball tipped the fingers of Manzoni and Garguilo caught the pigskin in back of the last defender. With a few yards lead, Dick easily made the end zone for the coveted six points. Tom Handley rammed over left guard for the extra point. This ended the scoring for the day, but there were numerous thrills which followed during the next three quarters.

King City, with their vaunted passing attack bottled up by the fast Carmel line and alert defenders, put on a sustained ground attack in the final quarter which nearly paid off. The Mustangs worked the ball to the Padre seven yard stripe, with 1st down and goal to go. At this point the local dug in and took the ball away from the Mustangs on the 4 yard line. Carmel came roaring out on a series of quick opening plays and were moving into King City territory when the gun ended the game.

The Padres scored again on a miraculous catch by Tom Handley, but an alert official detected backfield in motion and nullified the 55 yard scoring threat. Tom was well in back of the Mustang secondary and Paul Warner hit him with a perfect pass for one of the most thrilling plays of the game.

It is difficult to single out individual performances during the game because all the players turned in sterling jobs. In the line Rod Dewar, Dick Weer, Les Bracisco, and Owen Greenan gave the Mustang passers and ball carriers a bad afternoon by their aggressive and rugged play. Weer's vicious tackling was instrumental in stopping several King City drives which threatened to go the distance. Both sets of backfields employed by the Padres turned in stellar offensive and defensive play and were especially diligent in the pass defense department.

Hi Chatter

By PEGGY RIKER

Carmel High School is still congratulating its football team and with good cause. Saturday afternoon saw Carmel victorious over the King City Mustangs, our strongest opponent of the year. With this obstacle behind them the Padres climbed to the top of the B League with only two games remaining. Carmel is proud of the Padres' last performance as they played in a unit with no individual stars, and credit for our victory should go to every member of the team who saw action.

Tonight the Carmel Eleven travel to Gilroy for a non-league contest which will keep them in shape for our traditional "big game" with the Pacific Grove Breakers on Armistice Day.

"Never Trust a Man" was the clever title of the comedy presented before the student body Friday by the Drama Class, under the direction of Mrs. Mariquita Brey. Edith Barbie took the part of Mrs. Blake, Christine Malvido, Betty Blake; Beverly Dowgiallo, Sally Blake; Eleanor Taggart, Aunt Hattie; Eleanor Bannerman, Lucretia; while Joan Sanders portrayed the part of Rose Hill. Everyone enjoyed the play tremendously and the Drama Class is to be commended for their excellent characterizations.

Wednesday afternoon the Ski Club held its first meeting of the year on the sand dunes. The club has an extensive program planned for this year including three trips to Yosemite and Long Barn, along with several cross-country treks. This organization, started two years ago, has become one of the most popular on the campus with not only the experts, but the beginners.

The last round of the Girls' Intramural Basketball Tournament finds the Seniors ahead after close battle with the determined Sophomores, who fought them to a 14 to 14 deadlock. In a two minute play-off the Seniors regained their confidence and sank the deciding basket, leaving only the Juniors to defeat in order to win the coveted championship.

SPOILERS NEXT

"After Dark," at the First Theatre, Monterey, has but two more performances, the Troupers of the Gold Coast playing this Saturday night, November 8, and for the last time on Saturday night, November 15.

"The Spoilers," melodrama based on the Rex Beach story, with its setting in Alaska, will open at the First Theatre on Thursday evening, November 20, directed by Esther Gay.

SUNSET SCHOOL NOTES

Mrs. Myler's Fifth Grade

The old bell of Sunset was taken down last week. It was first used about 1910. They took it down because it was of no use up in the bell tower. Now it can be found in the school storeroom. From the will be built for the garbage cans, mops. Surely the bell has history behind it! —Sherman Larson.

Thursday we saw a traffic movie. It was about a Traffic Patrol boy named Pete who was walking down the street with a policeman. They were talking about traffic problems but when they came to the drug store, Pete took a double soda. Then he repeated the nine safety rules.

Sunset Traffic Patrol Captain Jack Hilgers says the greatest problem of Sunset's Patrol is that of students crossing San Carlos at Eighth.

The Patrol in the movie was trained by a policeman but our school patrol is trained by Mr. Rogers and Jack Hilgers.

—Gary Nielsen.

In our room we have a class meeting every day. First we salute the Flag and then sing a song in honor of the Flag. After this we hear the minutes of the last meeting, followed by old and new business.

The greatest part of time is spent in giving reports. The people who give reports get a little slip of orange paper and a sticker to go on it. In that way we can keep a record of those who give reports. The reason we have reports is to learn how to tell them well and so we are not afraid to stand in front of a group of people to talk.

Our class officers are, President Jon Chase, Vice-president Pat Grimshaw, Secretary Gary Nielsen, Treasurer Patty Ricketts, Sports-manager Paul Fratessa, Student Body Representative Merle Pitman, and Student Court John Paul Cook. —Sarah McCloud.

Sunset School had a contest between classes in the school. The class which had the most mothers visit their room would win a prize. Mrs. McCloud's room won and was given a party.

All classes were dismissed at 2:30 so the teachers could visit with the mothers and then go to the P.T.A. meeting.

If you haven't joined the P.T.A. do so at the next meeting.

—Paul Fratessa.

The children in Mrs. Mylar's fifth grade finished their borders. In our room we have a middle and two side borders. We drew a design we thought would look well as a border. The designs were pinned on the bulletin board and then we voted on the three we liked best. The winners chose two assistants to work with them in making patterns, cutting them from colored paper, and then pinning the parts in place on the border. Denice Wescott chose Gretchen Herron and Ramona De Staffany to work with her on the left border. On the right border with Paul Fratessa were Merle Pitman and Jon Chase. Patty Ricketts chose Cynthia Blum and Diane Thorne to help her on the middle border. —Patty Ricketts.

There are five new people in Room 5. Cynthia Blum used to live in Oakland and went to Montclair School there. Carol Shields came to our school after attending Serra School. Sandra Kohner was in Salt Lake City last year and attended Unitah School there. John Cook went to Oxen Hill High School in Oxen Hill, Maryland. Julie Work went to Walter Colton School in Monterey.

Everyone of the new people like Sunset. Cynthia says she likes it because the teachers are good and the school is attractive. Julie said, "It is a good school." Sandra thinks it is clean and well kept. "Nice", is John's word for our school. Carol thinks that the grounds are clean and the children play good games.

—Phyllis Burnette.

Mrs. French, Second Grade

I am going to Nevada. I am going to live there and play with Julia and Cappy. We are going to play in the snow and make snowmen. We are going to school together and laugh on the way.

—Mary Stickler.

Last summer Jon and I went fishing. We fished and fished. First Mark—that's my Dad—caught a fish, then I caught a fish. We took them home. We flayed (fileted) them. They were good.

I'm a little dog. I live with Roxana. She feeds me and she is good to me. —Roxana Way.

We have some mice at school. They are funny. They bite. When I was cleaning out the cage Pat put in his hand and one of them bit him. Pat was scared and so was the mouse. —Pierce Phillips.

M.A.C. Members Concert Review

BY EBEN WHITTLESEY

The members of the Musical Art Club presented their annual home talent program Sunday afternoon at the Golden Bough Playhouse before a capacity audience which heard with enthusiastic response the musical offerings of the more talented members of the club. The program was well planned, possessing a varied and balanced content. Unlike so many amateur efforts, it was run off with efficient timing and a minimum of hitches.

Miss Angie Machado, the program chairman, and the artists are to be congratulated on the result of their efforts. The program opened with three songs by a mixed octet composed of Dorothy Surtees, Esther Rogers, Mrs. Dan Lenoire Hosack, Mary Lynn Drake, Leonard Abinante, Wallace Lowry and Rue Manhire, Frank Binnie, one of the tenors being absent. These songs were well presented, the "Viking Song" by Coleridge-Taylor being the best of the group. The men's voices somewhat overshadowed the women, and Mr. Abinante had a little trouble holding the tenor part alone. In their third offering, "The King's Highway," by Williams, the soprano part was particularly good, while the group as a whole used good diction.

An oboe concerto played by Melvin Buffo provided an interesting note of variety. Mr. Buffo showed good execution, phrasing and was well accompanied. The writer feels the oboe is not a particularly attractive solo instrument, sounding slightly like a flute with adenoids, but Mr. Buffo's playing was very pleasant.

Lynn Brooks, tenor, gave a good account of himself in three songs, followed by an encore, "Through The Years". His accompanist, Elizabeth Alexander, is one of the best we know of in this vicinity. Mr. Brooks possesses a pleasing voice of even quality, uses good breathing technique, but somewhat lacks vitality of expression. His selections were a trifle on the hackneyed side, but it is always pleasant to hear the old favorites well presented.

A duet composed of Edith Anderson and Carl Bensberg presented two selections, and as an encore, "Sweethearts" from "Maytime" by Romberg. Their performance was pleasing, and well accompanied by Miss Machado. We have heard Mrs. Anderson when her voice appeared to greater advantage. Mr. Bensberg has fine quality and a musically sensitive presentation, but his work would be more effective if he had memorized his lines more completely.

Camille Olaeta gave a good account of herself in a group of piano selections. The most pleasing of her group was "Fervor" by Beecher. As an encore Miss Olaeta played "Pastorale" by Scarlatti. The selections chosen appeared slightly ambitious, but the artist was limited by a rather poor instrument.

The program closed with a group of songs by Joyce Zickhardt, soprano. The artist possesses a well-trained voice of full tone and melodic quality. She puts great feeling and expression into her work, with perhaps a slight excess of histrionics.

In a program of this length it might be desirable to eliminate encores altogether, particularly where there are so many artists. If each participant does an encore the program becomes unwieldy, while on the other hand all should have an equal opportunity in this respect if any encores are allowed. The program as a whole was very pleasant, and probably the best of its kind the club has presented in recent years.

STAR IN ANYONE'S EYES

MAYBE you're a beauty lover with an eye for standout style and the long, sleek, flowing line.

Know anything on the road today that's more the picture of perfect grace — more certainly the forerunner of the coming things in cars?

Or maybe you are strong for action — like the exciting feel of a really able performer, thrilling in its abundance of power, instant and sure in its responses.

Ever sample the wallop in this big Fireball straight-eight — or Buick's swift answer to your wheel hand and your treadle foot?

It could be you like comfort.

Broad seats, plenty of room, a soft and gentle ride that asks no favors from the road.

Come see what happens when you get a stout and rugged chassis, easy coil springs on all four wheels, room for three on front seat and back, and low-pressure tires that are like pillows on each wheel.

Or possibly, as a family man, you give more than a thought to the safety of those who ride with you.

You'll find this one starring on that score too — in controls that are firm and sure, bodies that are stout and rugged, even wheel-rims that are extra wide for control in emergencies, stability on curves and a firm, sure grip-on-the-road against sudden stops or skiddy going.

In truth, whatever you put first in an automobile — style, size, room, handling, comfort, controllability — you'll find this one putting stars in your eyes.

A joy to see, a thrill to handle, a dream to drive and ride in, it's America's most wanted car not on one count but on all of them.

Why wait vainly for others to catch up, when an order placed now, with or without a car to trade, makes you certain of getting the latest and choicest thing on the highway?

Mrs. Rickards Back, Enthusiastic About Ivory Collection

Mrs. Isobel Rickards has returned to Carmel after spending the summer at the Colwood Park Museum, near Victoria, B.C., as the guest of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bailey, the owners. She assisted them in showing and explaining their priceless collection of porcelains, jades, bronzes, ivories and valuable antiques.

"The ivories are rated to be the finest collections in America," Mrs. Rickards told the Pine Cone. "Included are cases of priceless wrist rests, used by calligraphers as a guide to symmetry of movement, and curved as gentle poise to the light and heavy strokes of the brush so necessary in Chinese writing."

The rests were made in pairs, each made out of a single piece of ivory without a single flaw in the entire carving. They were used in horizontal positions, the obverse side coming in contact with the forearm, carved and flat surface resting on the writing material. Some of them are signed by the Emperor Chien Sung, who presented them to a favorite scholar, Mrs. Rickards said.

This is the only collection of carved Chinese wrist rests in America, and second only to that in Pekin Museum, she added.

Editors of Holiday will bring out an article about the Colwood Museum in the Spring Issue.

Civic Unity Play Set For Nov. 23

Mrs. Mary Louise Deissler, president of the Monterey Peninsula Council for Civic Unity, has this week announced the date of the play which Irene Alexander is directing for presentation at the Golden Bough Playhouse.

On Whitman Avenue, a play by Maxine Wood which appeared successfully on Broadway, will be given Sunday afternoon, November 23, with the following cast: Portia Fabian, Eugene A. H. Watson, Mariquita Brey, Ruth McElroy, Joe Schoeninger, Clayton Dunning Somers, Doris Williams, Mrs. Wellington Smith, Michael McClure, Nora Martine, Marian Todd, Judith Campbell, Jimmie Moran, Lieut. Benedict Moseley, Brice Mc-

Randolph Churchill will speak in Sunset Auditorium the evening of Friday, November 7, at 8 p. m. on modern conditions in the British Empire. He is the author of the widely syndicated newspaper column, Europe Today, which appears daily in fifteen or sixteen countries. During the war he was with the Commandos at Tobruk, at Benghazi and later in Sicily and Bosnia. His personal experiences and up-to-the-minute factual report is highlighted by rare glimpses of world personalities he has interviewed, and his vast knowledge of the ever-changing pattern of world affairs gives strength to his dynamic lecture.

Adams, Jon van Niel and Victor Brune.

Edward Kuster is donating the Playhouse for the occasion and proceeds from the sale of tickets will be used for the work of the Council for Civic Unity.

Lial's Music Shop Is Redecorated, Has New Policy

After being closed for a month and a half, Lial's Music Shop down at the corner of Ocean and Monteverde re-opened last Saturday much the brighter for renovations, including a new paint job (white and pale yellow), more windows, potted white geraniums and with a band of white paint down the middle of the cellar stairs so that people can see where they are going. Although there are no structural alterations, the shop has had its face lifted.

The real change, however, lies less in the decorative scheme than in the record line, for Margaret Lial announces a startling change of policy which will appeal primarily to collectors. Instead of handling strictly commercial stuff, she is featuring imported records such as Polyphone, Liberty Music Shop, Vox, Disc, and English Decas, as well as classical albums.

The advantage of the imports lies in the fact that they release a great deal of music never recorded by the American companies, such as folk-songs which are otherwise unobtainable in this country.

Margaret Lial will continue to handle popular albums, but there will be no more popular single records.

Hallowe'en Party

A Hallowe'en party was given at the home of Dr. John Gratiot on Rancho Aguaquito last Thursday by Junia Gratiot and David Beall for Miss June Gustafson and a group of classmates. The gala costume party lasted from 5 until 8 p. m. and guests bobbed for apples, toasted marshmallows, popped corn, carved jack o'lanterns for prizes, and had their fortunes told by the "witch."

Supper was served at the gaily decorated table by Mrs. John Gratiot and Mrs. Gordon Beall, and Dr. John Gratiot took flash pictures of the group.

Among those present were June Gustafson, Diana Marron, Marcia Stanyon, Barbara Ley, Joan Derryberry, Floyd Dean Mohr, Sharon Harris, Donald Jaques, David Williams, Elizabeth and David Beall, and Junia Gratiot.

Newcomers

Mrs. Thomas B. Harrison, Jr., and her two daughters, Leslie and Christine, have rented the George Aucourt house in the Carmel Woods and plan to stay in Carmel indefinitely. They arrived early this week from Reno where they had been living for some time.

The Aucourt house was formerly occupied by Mary Painter, who left a few weeks ago to join her husband in Tokyo.

In Switzerland

Miss Cornelia Armsby is in Dornach, Switzerland. After being in France and Italy, she found the peace and quiet of the village a great joy. She writes enthusiastically of Goethe's Pandora performed at the Goetheanum, and Eurythmy performance by German students, who are going to tour Germany.

Varda Gone Again

After a couple of weeks on the Peninsula, Jean Varda has returned to San Francisco where he is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gump. He is thinking of opening a restaurant and yacht club in Sausalito and has already taken his boat up there — the one from which he removed the motor and turned into a sailing vessel.

Micaela Du Casse Here

Micaela Du Casse came down from Piedmont last week for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Elsa Martinez of Carmel Point. She will remain through Christmas. With her is her two-and-a-half year-old daughter, Jeanne.

Her husband is commuting between Carmel and Piedmont at present, as he has to remain in Piedmont where he is teaching and getting his M.A. at the University of California.

Sailing For Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. John Morse of Pebble Beach sailed November 4 on the Corsair for Acapulco, from where they plan to spend a month visiting in Taxco and Mexico City before returning to the Peninsula.

Monroe Made Chairman

Howard Monroe, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Creber Monroe of Hatton Fields, has been elected promotion chairman of the World Student Service Fund at the University of Oregon at Eugene. One of the goals of the drive is to collect $1000 from students which will be donated to the University of Rangoon.

Monroe is a sophomore, majoring in business administration.

Square-Dancers Party

The Carmel Valley Square Dancers had a gay Hallowe'en party at Frankie De Amaral's barn last Saturday night. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Corrigan, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Partch, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McCloud, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Steele, Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Work, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Porter, Peggy Porter Marquard, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Sarpino, Mrs. Margaret Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lancaster and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Moore.

Fords In Sausalito

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Onslow Ford, who came to make their home at the Carmel Highlands recently, after six years in the wilds of Mexico, went up to Sausalito this week to see Edwin Verbeck's antique shop and garden show of modern paintings.

They are going to take in the bright lights of San Francisco, as they are quite excited at the novelty of seeing people and activity again after six years of Stone Age culture.

Ney Fishing

John Ney of Carmel Highlands is fishing off the coast of Santa Barbara on a purse seiner belonging to Tony Gerolmo. They will be gone about three weeks.

Dr. Sweeney Coming

On his way from Portland, Ore., is Dr. Chas. T. Sweeney, to spend the winter in Carmel.

Sunset P.T.A. Teas

The first of a series of P.T.A. teas was held last week in the school cafeteria from 2:00 to 3:00. Mrs. Kenneth Roberts and Mrs. Frank Coit, room mothers, were in charge of arrangements. More than half of the Kindergarten mothers were present to hear Mrs. Marcia DeVoe, Kindergarten teacher, present a resume of the school program for her students.

At 7:30 in the evening of the same day, parents of the seventh grade students came to Sunset to meet one another and the teachers with whom their children study. Mr. Arthur Hull, principal; Mrs. Sylvia Jordan and Mr. James Blee, seventh grade teachers; Mrs. Beatrice Rea, art teacher; Mr. Ernest Calley, shop teacher; and Mr. Arthur Holman, music teacher, presented a discussion of their part in the school program of the seventh graders. Room Mother Mrs. Grace McKinney and Mrs. Gwen Harget were in charge of arrangements for the evening.

Baers Back From Trip

Morley and Frances Baer got back last week from a five day trek to the Sierras where they took a lot of pictures and went to Yosemite, Mono Lake, Tahoe Pass and the mining country around Placerville. They wanted to go over Tioga Pass, too, but it was blocked by a blizzard. They found the Sierras cold but beautiful this time of the year, although it was hot at Mono Lake with the sun shining on the desert.

The trip was in celebration of their first wedding anniversary.

Word From Grahams

Word was received from Elwood and Barbara Graham this week that they found a house in Santa Fe where they are planning to stay for the winter. As there is no central heating, the house is cold, but otherwise it's fine. The Grahams, who left for New Mexico several weeks ago with their three children, may not return until the end of next year.

Medical Luncheon

There was a luncheon yesterday at the home of Mrs. D. D. Stofer on 7th and San Antonio for the Monterey and San Benito Counties Women's Medical Auxiliary. Mrs. Stofer and Mrs. Richard Hane of Pacific Grove were the hostesses.

Here For Week End

Down from Sausalito for the week end were Mrs. Paul Berriman and her niece, Mary Schreiner of Brookline, Massachusetts. Mrs. Berriman is the wife of Col. Paul Berriman of the Army Engineers, West Coast Division, stationed at San Francisco. Her niece, Miss Schreiner, is a great friend of the Maurice Korshets.

Vances Here Briefly

Jim and Pat Vance came from Hollywood last week end to stay at the Pine Inn and see their old friends, Richard and Nancy Lofton. Vance, who lived here last year, is an artist currently working as a set-designer in Hollywood. They own a lot near the mouth of the Carmel Valley where they are hoping to build some day.

Carmel Story . . .

CHAPTER VIII THE RUNAWAY COTTAGE

BY DAISY BOSTICK

I looked out of my upstairs window down on Santa Fe street one early morning and to my utter surprise saw a cute little house traveling merrily, and with no visible means of support, up Ocean Avenue. The picture was complete. There it was—a real little painted redwood cottage, with porch, climbing vines, chimney, and curtains at the windows. It looked at me, roguishly—as it passed and I could have sworn that it flapped a vine or two at me and that a wisp of real smoke was coming out of the chimney. And I thought I heard a mischievous voice say "Catch me if you can. I'm running away."

By the time I had recovered enough to run out to the highway, Little House was turning the corner at Guadalupe street, but as it vanished I solved the secret of its locomotion. It was on a truck and as it went up the hill, the low trees and shrubs at the side of the highway had hidden everything but the house from me, so it seemed to be self-propelled. That was one mystery that I would have preferred to remain unsolved, for it isn't every day that you get to see a runaway cottage floating gently up a hill just outside your bathroom window.

Now to backtrack a little. In 1901, the Carmel Development Company had a lot of vacant land but few houses. J. F. Devendorf (familiarly and lovingly called Devvy) ordered one hundred old San Francisco cottages to be sent down in sections which were to be reassembled after reaching here. By the way, this seems to be the start of the prefabricated house industry but it didn't have much success as only one cottage, a barn and a carload of doors arrived.

Allen Knight's father paid three hundred dollars for the one lone cottage that showed up, put the various sections together on a lot belonging to him and his two sisters-in-law, Alys Miller and Agnes Miller. This was on the site of the present Sun Dial Apartments and this was the cottage that later decided to run away. The carload of doors that formed part of the shipment was used to build a house which now belongs to a relative of the former owner, Mrs. O'Hara and can still be seen on Lincoln between Eighth and Ninth. The barn was acquired by Miss Eunice Grey who placed it on Camino Real near Santa Lucia. Later she built a new house on the adjoining lot, and wrote a charming book entitled Cross Trails and Chaparral. Many changes came to the old barn even during Miss Grey's lifetime, but it has lately been acquired by Mrs. Emmy Blamer, who has handled its renovation with a magic touch, furnished it with her beautiful early American pieces and made it into one of the most charming houses to be found in this vicinity.

Now to return to the little cottage which ran away up the hill on an early morning. It seems that along with it there was a tent house in the grounds. Originally canvas, it had been shingled outside and lined inside with some sort of beaverboard. Allen Knight, then a gay young bachelor, had been bunking in the tent house. One night he had attended a studio party with Fenton Foster and on returning to his home at a late hour was too sleepy to realize that the house was on the sidewalk and had been placed on wheels all ready for an early morning jaunt to its new location alongside of Runaway Cottage. He went to bed and was just getting into a sound sleep when the truck started to roll. Allen, who as man and boy had been inclined to a seafaring pastime, came half awake and thought at first that he was on the briny deep. He chronicles his subsequent adventures as follows:

"When I looked out the window and saw the Episcopal Church going by, I knew then that something unusual was doing. When we turned the corner at Monte Verde and Ocean, the truck hit a culvert and the furniture began playing

DAWN FLIGHT

*My cushion is air,
my face to a pale horizon,
dawn slitting dark with steel.*

*Wind-ruffled water is gun-metal,
solid, silent,
shoals dark with banked land.*

*Forest and field are merely sunspread and shadow;
mountains are walls
rimming coves of sea;
little islands, single-housed, isolated,
jig-saw their angles
into the sheltered bays.*

*And the engines sing,
harsh in the peace-filled morning,
over the Sisters Island, red light-housed,
white with walls,
where the lonely keepers
serve lamp and horn, where the voices of rock speak.*

*My cushion is air, firm, pushing, pocketed, yielding and rocking;
it drives above cloud-film,
over streaked water,
where tides cover sea-hills
as cloud-banks cover-in mountains.*

Young day is awake up here, but below, the still grey swaddle of dreaming lies over the shoulders of earth.

—KATE RENNIE ARCHER.

I COUNTED NINE

*Unfolded among the grass,
Surprised at their own velvet
And the gentle sun, and a dream world,
Green and blue and gold:*

*They could not know I was counting them—
That a slow waking
Of late and farther past, and long ago
Held me:
So many mornings when I had stood so,
Bending over.*

*Early violets come like that—
Risen out of cold and darkness
Which they don't remember.*

—CHARLES BALLARD.

WIND-QUEST

*Come, Autumn Wind, I seek your rugged face,
The tense and vivid blueness of your eye,
That sheds majestic clarity of space
On slopes that bear a stubbled growth of rye.
I listen for the thunder of your voice,
The arias you shout from hill to hill,
The songs that make a poplar of your choice
Bend in fierce passion by my window sill.
Blow, Autumn Wind! Your gayety and strength
Are breath of life upon this easy land.
You sweep its valley treetops, till at length
Each oak is but a keyboard to your hand.
The eucalyptus roar upon the knoll—
Release all stops and let crescendos roll!*

—MARCUS Z. LYTLE.

Have You Read . . . ?

BY EVE BOYDEN

Existentialism, a compact 92 page volume by Jean Paul Sartre, French philosopher, dramatist, and teacher, was originally the text of a lecture. Bernard Fretchman, the translator, precedes the context with an introduction that serves to clarify the subject matter.

Sartre says the philosophy is primarily intended for specialists and philosophers, but he defines it concisely in terms that any layman can understand: "To . . . remove external support from man, making each responsible for his own life."

The book is divided into two parts. The first half is a definition and explanation of existentialism; the second an open discussion of questions and answers, the principal questioner and attacker being M. Naville, a French Marxist. One of the main criticisms of the philosophy is that it is not new, but originated in the writings of Heidegger and Kierkegaard.

According to Sartre, "Man is personally responsible for what he is and does." He chooses his own values and is wholly answerable for his choice. Therefore he may become an entirely different person by a different choice.

Since most people not only prefer to have someone else do their thinking for them, but are also addicted to rationalism, it is doubtful if this philosophy will command a wide following. It is a far more comforting theory for humans to believe they are the innocent victims of circumstances, buffeted by a malicious fate.

The idea that "Man is condemned to be free and is responsible for all he does" will prove a frightening thought to many. It also questions the validity of a previous statement made by Sartre that man is given a free choice. The very fact of having to make a choice somehow limits individual freedom.

Sartre further contends that man is nothing more than what he makes of himself. The first move of the philosophy is to make man totally aware of what he is. The existentialists believe that existence precedes essence; meaning that man first exists and afterwards defines himself.

The subjectivity of the individual is the point of departure. It is not an individual one in that it involves others. The man who becomes aware of himself also perceives others. This gives man dignity and saves him from becoming a mere object.

One of the main points in which existentialism differs from other accepted philosophies is that it directly involves action rather than pure contemplation.

Perhaps, since, in our contemporary society, many millions of people endure life only through their hopes and dreams, they will not take kindly to the idea that "Reality alone is what counts, that dreams, expectations and hopes warrant no more than to define a man as a disappointed dream. . . ."

Existentialism marks the first presentation in English of Sartre's writings. In it he has expounded a difficult idea lucidly and, although the subject is in some ways tenuous, there are direct phrases which give the book a definite vitality—"Before you come alive, life is nothing, it's up to you to give it a meaning, and value is nothing else but the meaning you choose."

leap frog over me. I grabbed for my shirt and my pants and in the midst of much pitching and rolling managed to get partially clothed. Unaware that he had a passenger, the driver was only intent on getting that load up the hill and didn't hear my frantic bawlings to stop. When we reached Dolores, I made up my mind to jump. And I shall never forget the look on the face of a lone pedestrian (it was six o'clock in the morning) as he saw a scantily clad figure sail through the air with the greatest of ease and land on the sidewalk beside him. Gee, in these

Legion Auxiliary

The guest speaker at the meeting of the Carmel Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary on Wednesday, November 12, will be Mrs. Margaret M. White of the Monterey Peninsula Town Hall.

The meeting will be held at 8 p. m., as usual, despite the temporary change in date from Tuesday to Wednesday.

The installation of the new first vice president, Ruth Andrews, and second vice president, Betty Leslie, will be conducted by Past President Gladys Johnston.

Preparation for the coming rummage and white elephant sale is under way, and suggestions and assistance are expected from all members. It is requested that people make their donations early this year.

Kurtz At La Playa

Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kurtz of Berkeley are spending several months at La Playa Hotel after returning from an extended trip through Alaska and Canada. The author of several books on poetry, notably one on Shelley, Dr. Kurtz is busy writing another book and is at present on his sabbatical leave from the University of California, where he is on the faculty of the English department. Dr. and Mrs. Kurtz are frequent visitors in Carmel and will probably stay until the middle of February this time.

Visiting Susan Porter

Jean Kelly is visiting Mrs. Susan Porter at Coastlands.

Henry Miller Book

A new book by Henry Miller, Big Sur resident, Remember to Remember, will be published soon by New Directions Press.

Guests of Grays

Dr. and Mrs. George R. Felts of Oakland have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. K. Fillmore Gray during the past week. Dr. Felts is a pediatrician.

Guests of Stuarts

Honorable Charles de Vault and Mrs. de Vault went out to the Retired Officer's Party at Fort Ord Tuesday night as the guests of Colonel and Mrs. George W. Stuart.

Altar Society

The Carmel Mission Altar Society will meet at 2 o'clock on Friday, November 13, at the home of Mrs. Joseph G. Hooper, and all members are requested to come prepared to sew.

Youth Fellowship

The Youth Fellowship group of the Church of the Wayfarer will meet at 6 p.m. Sunday night under the leadership of Group 2, Nancy Watson, Captain. Their topic for discussion will be: Should the U.N. or the U.S. Control the Atom Bomb? Louise Harber, Beck Bell, Jim Harget, Ben Viljoen, June Walker and Landis Crosby will be the speakers.

During the social hour after the discussion, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Westcott and Dr. and Mrs. Howard Clark will be the hosts and hostesses.

Music Scholarship

At a Halloween luncheon given by Mrs. Ralph Weston at her music studio on Saturday, November 1, a four months music scholarship was awarded to Susan Stoney, the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Stoney of the Carmel Valley.

A prize was awarded to Dale Dawson, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dawson for his splendid work at the piano during the past few months. Following luncheon, musical games were played and Dr. Weston took group pictures. Dale Dawson played the Prelude in G Minor by Rachmaninoff and a theme from a piano concerto by Tchaikowsky, later accompanying the rest of the children while they sang school songs.

John Grace Here

John Grace, British architect, who came to the United States at the beginning of the war, has recently moved to the Carmel Highlands and opened an office in Monterey. He first came to Carmel in 1939, shortly after arriving in this country from England, and spent several months at the Big Sur where he occupied the Blackman cottage. Mr. Grace is very much in love with the Big Sur country, and hopes to build a house there someday.

Until recently in the Bay Area where he had an office in San Francisco and worked for the Vallejo Housing Authority during the war, he designed the Daliel bookstore and art gallery in Berkeley for George Leite, publisher of Circle Magazine. A great friend of Jean Varda, Elwood Graham, Remo Scardigli and other members of the local art crowd, Grace decided to move down to Carmel three weeks ago and build houses. The indigenous qualities of the landscape he finds quite stimulating to architectural work and he is particularly interested in certain native materials such as stone, redwood and pine.

John Grace is also an artist, and has been sharing a studio with Jean Varda at the Highlands. Although his work has not been exhibited extensively as yet, several of his paintings have been shown in San Francisco.

A graduate of Cambridge, Grace had an office in London before the war, but the Munich Conference interrupted the architectural business so he decided to migrate to the United States. His home, for the past seven years, has been in Mill Valley.

Mrs. Wilson Leaves

Mrs. Raymond Wilson left for Berkeley this week where she will assist Mrs. Vernon Short in entertaining her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Short.

Irving Short, recently out of the Army, plans to come to Carmel for a visit soon.

Old-Fashioned Ice Cream Social

The Women's Auxiliary of the Church of the Wayfarer is holding an old-fashioned ice cream social on the evening of Nov. 14, with a varied program before the refreshments and friendly visiting over the dishes of ice cream. Mrs. Carmalita Benson is president of the Auxiliary.

Book Section, Radio Group Meet

Book section of the A.A.U.W. will meet at the home of Mrs. Ted Durein, chairman, on Hatton Mesa next Wednesday evening, November 12, at 7:45, with two books scheduled for discussion. The radio listening group will meet the next evening, Thursday, at the home of Miss Harriet Baker in Pacific Grove, beginning at 5:30 with a box supper, and adjourning at 7:00. Miss Eleanor Mary Henry is the chairman.

Booksellers Tea

The Village Booksellers are celebrating National Good Book Week with a tea at 4 p. m. on Friday, November 14, at their new quarters in the old Chop House at the corner of 6th and Lincoln. Everyone is invited to come.

Guests of honor will be Allison Stilwell, whose first book, Chin Leng, the Chinese Cricket, has just been published by MacMillan, and Mrs. Zenas L. Potter, the author of a new children's book, Hello, Mr. Goose. Miss Stilwell, a talented artist who paints in the Chinese manner, did her own illustrations for Chin Leng, the Chinese Cricket. Mrs. Potter's book was illustrated by her husband.

Mrs. Anne Fisher, author of Bears, Pirates and Silver Lace will also be on deck as an honored guest.

SAN FRANCISCO

read this:

If you enjoy bucking the traffic to the Bay Region, that's one thing.

If you don't, we'd like to present our morning train, the Del Monte.

The Del Monte has a fast, convenient schedule. You leave Pacific Grove 7:25 a.m., Monterey 7:35 a.m., Del Monte 7:37 a.m., arriving San Francisco 10:35 a.m.

You can return on the same train, leaving San Francisco at 4 p.m., and arriving Del Monte 6:54 p.m., Monterey 6:57 p.m., Pacific Grove 7:05 a.m.

If you want to return later, take the Coaster leaving San Francisco 7 p.m. Bus connection from Salinas arrives Del Monte 10:50 p.m., Monterey 10:53 p.m., Pacific Grove 11:10 p.m. The Coaster has a dining car.

Afternoon and evening
Daylights, too.

The streamlined Daylights arrive San Francisco 6 p.m. and 9:55 p.m. (Coffee shop and dining car service.) Connecting bus service from Pacific Grove, Monterey and Del Monte to Salinas. Returning, the Daylights leave San Francisco 8:15 a.m. and 12:15 noon. Please be sure to make reservations in advance for seats on the Daylights.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Prissy's Got a Man!
(Maybe)

Yesterday Sis Martin, our librarian, found an article cut from their file copy of the Clarion. When she compared it with another copy that I gave her she found it was my column on "How to Keep a Husband Happy."

Nothing unusual about that. Except the last person seen reading the paper was Prissy Hoskins (our town's proverbial Old Maid)!

Well, if Prissy has finally got a man, more power to her. And more tolerance to both of them... because that's what my column was about: Tolerance of a husband's taste for old hats, old pipes, old friends, and mellow beer. And tolerance on the husband's part of a wife's tastes and habits.

From where I sit, nobody begrudges Prissy taking that clipping from the Clarion. But I'd like to hint that if she'd just subscribe, she'd get my thoughts on tolerance firsthand. And in return I'll treat her to a glass of beer..

Joe Marsh

With Nancy Lofton

The Philip Photo Visual Service, at 1218 American Avenue, Long Beach, which is the distributor of the Colorful America Sets of 2x2 color slides produced by C. EDWARD GRAVES of Carmel, has announced in its new catalogue that a set of slides on "California's Monterey Peninsula" is now ready for distribution. There are 20 slides in the set, selling for $11.00 in pasteboard mounts or $13.40 bound in glass. A reading script or study guide accompanies each set. The suggestion is made that a set of these slides would make an excellent Christmas remembrance for friends or relatives in other parts of the country who own a projector or viewer for the 2x2 slides.

For warm gloves to keep the mortal creeping chill at bay, look in THE STOCKING SHOP in the Golden Bough Court on Ocean Avenue. In black, white and many glowing colors you may have wool and nylon gloves. There are angora gloves with decorative stitching along the seams in basic colors. The indispensable knit cotton glove comes in chamois, white and beige. THE STOCKING SHOP has received, too, a shipment of the finest children's socks we've seen. These are imported woolen socks, beautifully knit and well-fashioned with a lacy wool cuff. The wool of which they are made is pre-shrunk and will keep its softness with care. They cost .95 and come in brown, light and dark blue and white.

THE HERITAGE ANTIQUE SHOP in the Sundial Court Studio on Monte Verde and Seventh has very thick soft braided rugs in virgin wools in rich color. You may order these rugs made to your specifications, but it is better yet, to make one yourself. Helen Clara-but will teach you how she makes them, and for the $20.00 which the course of instruction costs you may sit in the shop forever surrounded by Queen Anne tables and Lowestoft cups while a rug that will outlast your grand-children takes shape under your fingers. Speaking of cups, in THE HERITAGE ANTIQUE SHOP you'll find tea, coffee and demitasse cups from Meissen, Lowestoft and Spode.

It is most uncomfortably close to Christmas and here are a few suggestions for Christmas presents from THE CARMEL ART SHOP upstairs in the Seven Arts Court. For cork mats you may buy cork by the yard. There is copper and aluminum in thin sheets to be tooled or worked or cut for tree ornaments. There are gift sets for block printing, finger painting, pastel drawing, stenciling, and crayon and colored pencil sets, besides craft kits for plying practically any handicraft.

In the smallest type this note should attract attention. For $3.95 where else but at DEREK RAYNE'S CARMEL SHOP FOR MEN on Ocean Avenue can you buy a 100% pure wool Buckskin Joe Buffalo plaid shirt? These shirts come in black and red in sizes 15½ to 17 and they'll delight the heart of huntsman, sportsman, or highschool boy. For similar customers who wish a good, yet inexpensive sweater, Mr. Rayne offers a Valcuna long sleeved, V-neck sweater in yellow, wine or seagreen, in sizes 40 to 46 for $6.00.

It is strange that in cold January and February when you want warm clothes the shops are showing largely spring dresses. The moral of this is: buy warm dresses now for winter. THE CARMEL DRESS SHOP on Ocean at Dolores has classic sport dresses in rayon gabardines and crepes in good styles and colors to see you through, and the prices are not exorbitant—$10.95 to $14.95. For that dress which must take its place between sport clothes and formal afternoon or evening dress THE CARMEL DRESS SHOP has a group of softly designed clothes with feminine details of tucked bosoms, draped and gored skirts which sell for $12.95 to $14.95.

A steaming pot of New England baked beans imbued with molasses, served up with hot Boston brown bread is a fine concoction and you may have it at THE VILLAGE CORNER all day Saturday, and other days too. THE VILLAGE CORNER features some such delicacy every day. If not hot soup, or a hot turkey sandwich, or a hot pot of beans you may have chili, but every day in THE VILLAGE CORNER there'll be a hot dish to warm you.

A hen for fricasseeing is no longer worth her weight in gold. Her price at MAC'S POULTRY SHOP on San Carlos between Fifth and Sixth is down to pre-war levels. For .45 a pound you may have a fricassee hen, for .58 a pound a colored roaster or fryer. Young fat succulent turkey hens are .65 a pound and ducks to order are .55 a pound. All this and fresh eggs, too, may be yours by calling 1492-J or Monterey 5556, or going to MAC'S POULTRY SHOP. The eggs, incidentally, are .85 a dozen for extra large ones, .80 for large and .72 a dozen for medium.

In French worsted flannel in the softest, gentlest, subtlest brown and beige imaginable there is a suit, tailored by Joselli, in GAIL COUPE'S DRESS SHOP on San Carlos between Fifth and Sixth. The tailoring of the suit is of course worthy the nationally advertised name of Joselli, and the material is of a quality to be expected in a suit costing twice as much as the $45.00 on the price tag. This suit comes in Junior sizes, 9-15, and in GAIL COUPE you'll find other suits by Joselli in sizes up to 20.

Van Wyck Brooks' new book, The Times of Melville and Whitman is out and may be purchased at THE VILLAGE BOOKSHOP on Ocean Avenue. Also available are The Proper Bostonians by Cleveland Emory and The Cats of Wildcat Hill by Edward Weston, and Give Me the Stars by Clara Maxwell Taft, a beloved Carmelite. The Proper Bostonians is recommended reading for anyone with a surfeit of maiden aunts or gilt edged invitations, and Edward Weston's book, autographed copies of which you may have, is especially recommended for photographers and alleurophiles.

If you have a middle sized or in-between daughter you know how difficult it has been in Carmel to buy clothes for her. GLADYS McCLOUD'S SHOP FOR GIRLS on Dolores just south of Ocean Avenue satisfies a long felt want. Here you'll find dresses, skirts, sweaters, slips and blouses for girls in sizes 7-14 and for teen-aged girls in sizes 10-16. GLADYS McCLOUD has just unpacked handsome Hollywood knit suits in sizes 7-14 in woollens in rich colors with a handwoven look. You'll find suitable accessories there, and, incidentally, good, soft, durable, pre-shrunk pajamas of outing flannel.

If any of your problems are related to canvas or concern canvas Mr. JAMES KEITH STANTON of the MONTEREY AWNING COMPANY is the man to call. Mr. Stanton may be reached at Monterey 204-75, and he repairs awnings, recovers garden or porch furniture, mends horse blankets, makes tarpaulins of any size, repairs tents and umbrellas, sells canvas and makes of canvas whatever can be made of canvas. If you have a problem of waterproofing, call Mr. Stanton.

This is written on a Wednesday when things are confused, but by Friday, when this is read, you will find the CARMEL BOOKSELLERS SHOP in the Chop House on Lincoln and Sixth neat, clean and orderly, and ready to serve you. Of a Tuesday the first American edition of Freud's War, Sex and Neurosis was stacked up with Jemima Puddle-Duck, and if you (Continued on Page Seventeen)

Announcing

Della Vanney and Todd Wilshire, owners and operators of the Stauffer System, will be happy to greet you at the Stauffer salon in Carmel on Mission, between 4th and 5th Streets.

Because so many people who have taken Stauffer treatments say "It's a pity that more people don't realize the many benefits the Stauffer System offers them," The Stauffer System will have open house on Wednesday, November 12, 1947, which marks its second year on the Monterey Peninsula. On this day the tables will be demonstrated and free treatments will be given from eight in the morning until eight at night. The Stauffer System is the result of many years of study and research and today there are two hundred and thirty salons throughout the United States. It is more than just a reducing system—it is a health treatment that tones the body, corrects faulty posture, improves the circulation and brings relief to sufferers from rheumatism, neuritis, insomnia, backache and nervous tension. The gentle though thorough action of the Stauffer tables causes no strain on the patient, no disrobing is necessary and each treatment is in a private booth.

Seeley-Nuhlethaler

Johanna Nuhlethaler became the bride of Edwin Wesley Seeley at the Church of the Wayfarer on Sunday at 7 p.m. Dr. K. Fillmore Gray performed the ceremony.

Leaving For Tokyo

Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Clay, who has been studying art here with Richard Lofton, left for Tokyo this week to join her husband.

Wayfarer Auxillary

An emphasis upon personality and the sacredness of the individual is the characteristic that distinguishes Christianity from other religions. Mr. Charles Corbin, retired college professor now living in Carmel, told the Women's Auxillary of the Church of the Wayfarer on Tuesday afternoon. It is this recognition of the importance of personality that marks Christ-ianity as the best of the many religions followed by mankind. Personality will lead the individual to devote himself to a cause, to an ideal, sometimes even to the point of dying for the idea. The scientist is devoted to the discovery of truth, the artist to the creation of beauty, but the thing that really satisfies mankind is the joy that comes from service, and this is implicit in Christianity.

Following Professor Corbin's talk Miss Barbara Stoney, with Miss Naomi Fletcher as accompanist, sang two songs appropriate to the theme of the day, the Crusader's hymn, Fairest Lord Jesus, and the appealing spiritual Sweet Little Jesus Boy, by Robert MacGimsy, which were greatly enjoyed by members of the Auxillary.

At the business meeting which preceded the program Mrs. Ada McGee reported that 760 rolls of bandages for lepers, prepared by the group that meets at 10:30 on Auxillary days, and 270 abdominal bindings contributed by the Red Cross from their surplus had been dispatched by express to the American Mission to Lepers in Los Angeles to be sent to the leprosarium at Culion in the Philippines. Mrs. Clarence Postelwait told of the clothing bundles being prepared for school children of Europe and the boxes of school supplies given by the Sunday School children.

Mrs. D. E. Nixon announced the old fashioned social and friendly get-together to be held in the social room of the church on the evening of November 14. An entertaining program is promised, with numbers furnished by June Delight's classes and by Grace McKay. Those who conveniently can are asked to wear old-fashioned costumes, grandmother's party dress, to give color to the gathering. Mrs. Charles Corbin gave devotions with the theme of Thanksgiving, reading poems in the spirit of the holiday and closing with a prayer of thanksgiving. Mrs. Carmalita Benson, president, conducted the meeting.

Medal For Swan

Alford C. Swan, who served in the Merchant Marine during the war, received the World War II Torpedo Bar this week for his service aboard a powder ship which was torpedoed off the coast of Norway in 1944.

Carmel Story . . .

days I would have been taken for a paratrooper."

When Runaway and its little comrade Tent House were removed from their Seventh and Monte Verde corner, Mrs. Mary Hamlin, Allen Knight and Alys Miller built Carmel's first modern apartment house and named it Sun Dial Apartments. Later, Mrs. Hamlin retired from the firm. Sun Dial is a beautiful building with up-to-date sunny apartments and an inside patio which is filled with lovely exotic flowers and gay garden furniture and is one of the most enchanting courts in town.

Although put out to pasture like a loved old horse the old Runaway Cottage is still in use housing happy people. It now forms the dining room and kitchen of the large roomy house which Allen Knight eventually built for his wife and growing family. Tent House has been used for years as a guest house. During the war it served a great need and the Knights get many lovely letters from its former tenants. A short time ago Allen was making some minor repairs and on cutting through one of the walls found the original canvas in perfect condition.

Allen Knight has grown up with the village and he and his wife have always been an integral part of its social and cultural life. Allen and several of his friends—mostly business men of Monterey—started well before Pearl Harbor to serve as a complete unit for the protection of this coast line. They worked, drilled and studied navigation and were finally accepted by the Governor as a State Nautical Corps with important duties assigned them. Such a service should not go unrecognized for it is such individual groups with loyalty and initiative that make possible a working Democracy.

Upon Allen Knight's return he took over his civic responsibilities and is now serving as Police Commissioner on the Carmel City Council. There are no wistful ghosts hovering around Allen's houses as they belong to the direct descendants of the original owners and have always been the home of peace and contentment.

Julia Graves' Party

Julia Graves gave a Halloween party last Friday night for a group of classmates at her home on Dolores and Third where, everyone had a fine time playing for forfeits, dancing, drinking apple cider and eating doughnuts and popcorn. The room was gaily decorated with apples strung from the rafters, which were decked with orange and black streamers, and lighted jack-o-lanterns were lined up on the porch.

Among those present were Janet McFail, Skipper Lloyd, Kurt von Meier, Carol Timbers, Stewart Emery, Patsy Hume, Mansfield Turney, Janet Huffman, Del Myer, Walt Shaw, Allene Knight, Alan Reyburn, Margot Claypoole, Peter Hatton, Susan McCloud and Gilbert Neill.

Kurt von Meier and Del Myer appeared as pirates while Skipper Lloyd came as a scarecrow. Walt Shaw and Stewart Emery both were seized with the inspiration of impersonating Al Jolson. Mansfield Turney was a Brave Hunter and Alan Reyburn was a Greenwich Village Artist. Peter Hatton came as a sailor, Julia Graves as a bat, and Janet McFail was the Little Girl of 1947 with an oversized bow, short skirt, lollipop and all. Allene Knight appeared as the Little Girl of 1847 wearing pantaloons, a blouse with puffed sleeves, and a bonnet.

Carol Timbers came as a post card, Patsy Hume in Chinese costume, Susan McCloud and Gilbert Neill as hill billies, and Margot Claypoole was the Devil Himself complete with horns and a flowing cape to match her bright red stockings.

Wolo And Party

Pat Wall had a shower of overnight guests recently, some titled and from various parts of the world. Among them were Princess Trundlebumps and Sir Archibald Prissybritches, lately of Africa; Amanda, Dorinda, Tarrux, Tweedles, Iggles and Miggles; Kathleen from Ireland and one Slower, the Clown—all gay puppets travelling with Wolo, the artist and author of many children's books.

Wolo is on his way to San Francisco but intends to return soon and may give some puppet shows in Carmel in the near future.

Gilberts Return

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gilbert got back Monday from New York and are at home again at Torres and 10th. They left Carmel six weeks ago and, except for a brief trip to the coast of Maine, spent most of their time visiting Mrs. Gilbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wiley on Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley will come out by train later this month to spend the winter in Carmel, as usual.

don't have one, you'll probably have the other, but the lending library is already orderly and well filled. The back door to the shop is for sneaking out with your armful of mystery stories, but you may go out the front carrying the heaviest novel of the season, which is William's House Divided, and has 1540 pages. The parrot is happier by the back door.

Between the hours of twelve noon and two thirty THE NORMANDY INN on Ocean at Monte Verde has something new to offer you in addition to their traditionally gracious luncheon. This new departure is the Chaffing Dish Luncheon. Its advantages are threefold, first, it is inexpensive, costing only 85c, second it is light yet sustaining, consisting of an utterly delectable chaffing dish whose contents vary from day to day, from filets of beef with summer vegetables and fresh mushrooms to scallop of turkey wings or corned beef and cabbage accompanied by a tossed vegetable salad, the house's fine hot bread, and tea and coffee, third, it is quick. You may be in, have your luncheon put before you quickly, and be out again, briefly and pleasantly.

The new paint and polish and the new windows in LIAL'S MUSIC SHOP on Ocean at Monte Verde are beautiful but it is the records which make of LIAL'S a connoisseur's corner. Since the shop has reopened it has been, and will be, the policy of LIAL'S of Carmel to handle the best in domestic and imported recordings. For sweet listening LIAL'S offers the first Paganini release, the Rasoumovsky Quartet No. 1, which bears the Victor label. From the Alco Recording Company which offers rare and unusual music LIAL'S has The Chinese Flute, a chamber symphony by Ernest Toch, who used as his point of departure ancient Chinese lyrics. Imported recordings include Richard Tauber's singing of the Il mio tesoro aria from Don Giovanni and several Eileen Joyce albums from England. Adv.

University Women

Monterey Peninsula Branch of the American Association of University Women will meet at the House of the Four Winds in Monterey at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, November 20, with Dr. Margaret Swigart, chairman of fellowships, in charge of the program. Arrangements for the meeting were completed Monday night by the executive board meeting at the home of Mrs. Thor Krogh in Monterey. Members expect to hear about Dr. Swigart's observations in Europe last summer when she attended an international medical conference.

Youth Fellowship

Young Peoples' Fellowship met at All Saints' Parish House for supper at 5:30 Sunday evening. In the absence of the president, Barbara Berg, the secretary, Jennifer Llyod, presided. The group decided to send Christmas boxes to the children of the Indian mission in Wyoming and made plans to have a candy booth at the Bazaar to be held at the parish house on November 19. Nancy Brown was appointed chairman of the committee in charge of the candy sale, proceeds of which will be donated to the building fund.

Hon. Leroy Johnson Here

Mr. Leroy Johnson, Congressman from the Third District, and Mrs. Johnson, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Menzies of Hatton Fields this week, and Tuesday evening the Menzies asked Mr. and Mrs. Tom Norris, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Greene and Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Van Meter in to meet them. Mr. C. B. Ramsey of Portland, Mrs. Menzies' brother, is also a house guest.

Last night the Van Meters entertained at a cocktail party for the Johnsons.

New Sur Residents

Pierce Ressler, short story writer, and Douglas Mandson, an artist, are newcomers to the Big Sur, living in the Gordon Newell cottage above the highway at Castro Creek.

Party For The Strausses

Mr. and Mrs. Gallatin Powers are giving a cocktail party and buffet supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strauss on November 17 at their home at Carmel Highlands. Mr. Strauss, who is one of the top editors for the Alfred A. Knopf Publishing Company, during the war was stationed for some time at Fort Ord. Among those who will be at the Powers' home to renew their acquaintanceship will be: Mrs. Marie Short, Mr. James Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Geissen, Mrs. Carol Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lloyd and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meade Williams.

Capt. Leslie Leaving

Captain Edgar Leslie, Reserve Army Air Force, is leaving Carmel on Sunday for Hamilton Field, where he will be on active duty for two weeks. Mr. Leslie was a pilot during the war in the Air Transport Command and has continued to serve in the Reserves.

Looking Up Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Edouard Jacot, were here from Tucson this week looking for old Carmel friends, and were disappointed to learn that Dudley Carter, sculptor, is working on a commission in the north woods and Dr. W. K. Fisher is east visiting his father.

Report On Clifton Williams

Russell Jones returned from his month's vacation, during which he visited Clifton Williams on his 12-acre ranch outside of Carlsbad, Arizona.

Clifton Williams is the retired Dean of the Law School of Marquette University who exhibited his work at the Art Gallery regularly while he was living in Carmel. Mr. Jones reports that he is now raising giant sweet potatoes and two varieties of peanuts, as well as thousands of gladioli. He brought back with him one of the sweet potatoes that measures more than 18 inches long. He reports that Williams has recovered from his last spring's major operation and has recently painted the portrait of a mountain lion and a scene showing a herd of cattle moving across the range.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones flew to Chicago and drove more than 5000 miles on their return across the country. They had as good a time in New Orleans as anywhere but were quite impressed with the bigness of Texas.

Berry-Van Nuys

Married at 10 p.m. on Sunday, November 2, were Rodney Earl Berry and Dorothy Jane Van Nuys, both of San Francisco. The ceremony was performed by Dr. K. Fillmore Gray at the manse.

Republican Luncheon

Plans for the November 7 Republican Women's Luncheon at La Ribera Hotel were completed Tuesday. Mrs. C. C. Baker and Mrs. Jesse Williams, National Committee Woman from California, will be the principal speakers. The latter has just returned from Philadelphia, where plans are already under way for the Republican Convention to be held there next year.

At the meeting to make arrangements for the November 7 luncheon were: Mrs. Jack Abernethy, Mrs. Louise Grigsby, Mrs. Durbin Sayers, Mrs. C. Montague Irwin, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Rodney Mason, Mrs. Arthur Smiley, Mrs. Lowell Bowhay, Mrs. W. A. Buckner and Mrs. Peggy Porter Marquard.

Study Group

When the study group of All Saints' Church met at the parish house Tuesday Mrs. W. R. Stevenson gave a comprehensive analysis of the first chapter of Moral Man and Immoral Society by Neibuhr. Tea hostess was Mrs. Walter Lehmann. Next meeting will be held at White Cedars on December 9. Mrs. Alfred Seccombe and Mrs. F. G. Boice serving as hostesses. Miss Alice McClure will be the lesson leader.

Make your anniversary an extra-special occasion—send her flowers. Freshly cut, fragrant flowers delivered everywhere.

Houseless Rinks Move

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rink and young Andrew and David left Carmel this week—houseless—to take shelter under the hospitable roof of Mr. Rink's mother, Mrs. Bernice Rink, 139 Twelfth Street, Pacific Grove. They admit defeat only temporarily, however. "Everybody is looking for a house for us," says Mrs. Rink. "And something may be available up Carmel Valley soon. The house we were living in here was sold and we had a month to move."

ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light" (5:8).

The following citations are included in the sermon:

Romans: "For if by one man's offence death reigned by one;
much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ" (5:17).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When speaking of God's children, not the children of men,

Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is within you;' that is, Truth and Love reign in the real man, showing that man in God's image is

SUNNY SLOPES FIRE

Wednesday shortly after noon the Fire Department received a call for help from the little house,
Sunny Slopes, at Santa Fe between 4th and 5th, which is occupied by Mrs. Joan Simpson-Atmore and her son, John Otis. Matches in a box above the gas range had caught fire from too close proximity to the heat, but the flames were readily extinguished when the volunteers arrived.

St. John's Chapel Del Monte

The Rev. Theodore Bell
Chaplain

St. John's Chapel is a beautiful little church nestling in a grove of giant oak trees. Men and women from many lands have found it to be a place apart. It may be that you also will find its atmosphere congenial to the spiritual life. The Chapel is open all day long.
Those who seek in its stillness to grow more conscious of God's presence do not go unrewarded.
Sunday services at eight and eleven a.m. The Chapel is close to Hotel Del Monte.

Dr. Braithwaite Appreciative Of Long Delayed Credit

After reading Glenn Clairmonte's article in the Have you Read column in the October 24 issue of the Pine Cone, Dr. William Stanley Braithwaite of New York writes:

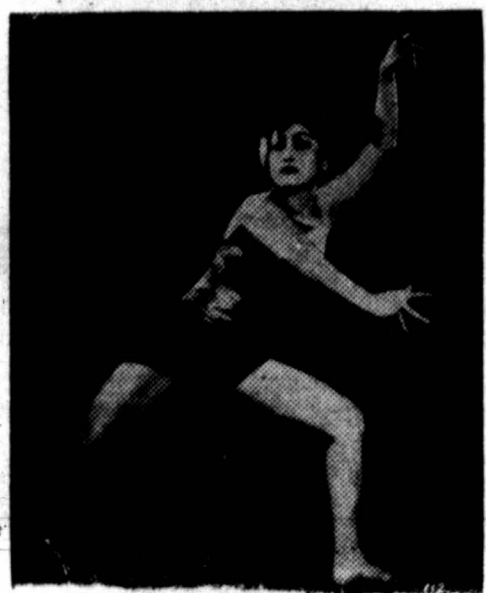

"The Pine Cone is the first to put the matter right about Harriet Monroe and the fact that I was first to propose a poetry magazine for this country, as well as the fact of Edward O'Brien's launching the short story annual at my suggestion. Several people know it privately, but only in the Pine Cone has it been stated in print. The last two or three years there have been a number of tributes for the work I did early in this century, notably a lengthy summary by Sister Theresa in America.

"Incidentally your article comes as a correction to the oversight of Horace Gregory in his History of American Poetry, 1900-1940, wherein he doesn't even mention the Anthologies of Magazine Verse, but gives credit to Louis Untermeyer for this service, blinking the fact that Untermeyer's collection appeared from ten to fifteen years after the Anthologies."

Dr. Braithwaite is at present engaged in making an exhaustive study of the life and work of Emily Bronte, in preparation for a speech he has been invited to give in the Boston Public Library at the centennial of her death.

W. Ammerman

William S. Ammerman, 63, died November 1, at his residence at 481 Junipero. He was a native of Dansville, Pennsylvania, but had plied his trade as a mason in this city for the last 26 years. He is survived by his wife, Margaret Ammerman, by two daughters, Mrs. M. O. Sloane, and Mrs. L.

Devi Dja, who will appear with her Bali Java Dancers, accompanied by native musicians, at Sunset Auditorium, Carmel, Tuesday night only, Nov. 18, is a celebrated authority on the ancient and exquisite dances of Indonesia. In her exotic person, as well as in her superb art, she typifies the charms and talents of her race.

Born in Java of royal blood, she went to Bali at the age of 6, and became a temple dancer. Her technique and repertoire developed rapidly, and by the time she was 13 she headed her own troupe on a tour of the Dutch East Indies. Leopold Stokowski, on a visit to Bali in 1938, discovered Devi Dja and recommended her to Columbia Concerts for American bookings. Devi Dja has made three coast-to-coast tours, but this will be her first performance in Carmel.

Selbicky, and by a son, Frederick W. Ammerman, all residents of the Peninsula. He was the brother of Mrs. J. McEldowney of Carmel and Earl Francis Ammerman of Downeyville, California.

Funeral services were held November 4 at the T. A. Dorney funeral home. Officiating was the Rev. Carl Steffens, pastor of the Lutheran Church at Pacific Grove. Burial took place at the Monterey City Cemetery.

Petersen-Carlson

A Palo Alto couple were married at the Church of the Wayfarer by Dr. K. Fillmore Gray at 2 p.m. on Sunday, November 2. Their names: Robert E. Peterson and Patricia E. Carlson.

Reunion At French Hospital

It was Carmel Day at the French Hospital in San Francisco last week. Mrs. Howard E. Smith and Mrs. Paul Dougherty of Carmel, and Mrs. Florence Chamberlain of Robles del Rio were patients there at the same time. Mrs. Dougherty is recovering from a cracked rib; Mrs. Chamberlain is in the hospital for a rest. Mrs. Smith, who has been a patient for several months, was released this week and is living at a San Francisco hotel until Mr. Smith can find a house in Carmel. Until it was sold last year, the Smiths occupied the old Lincoln Steffens place here for five years.

Back With Limits

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cochrane returned Sunday from hunting at Tule Lake, bringing their limits in ducks and geese with them on ice. It's still warm in Canada and the waterfowl are not on the move in as great numbers as they usually are at this time of year, Cochrane reports.
